A TELEGRAM dated Calcutta 20th 1st says:—

Sir Richard Temple will contest Kidderminster against the Liberal members, accepts the Oshlerra franchise to be unseating on a legal issue.

The Street Times learn by a private letter from Bangkok that much excitement had been caused in the Palace owing to the fact that one of the King King's wives and child had been drowned through the fault, particularly of which are not given.

breast. "His only other garment was a pullover cloth overcoat that would be useful in an Arctic expedition." His manly and stag-like throat was exposed to the weather, and his statue-like head was mounted with an ancient silk hat, the rim of which had been carefully rubbed wrong way. Bennett had a few solid words with the man, who had a light of intelligence in his owner smiled pleasantly upon the one who had not the privileges of being him, in the fashion. — Vogue Gazette.

A NOTIFICATION from the Collector of Customs, Calcutta, published in the Calcutta Gazette on the 12th instant, states: "As the first of the 1st June next, export of the will be required to make out shipping bills a declaration to the effect that the weight therein stated is correct in addition to the declaration as to value."

Friday night June 10.

The weather here is all about the same. For six weeks we have not seen a dry day and now everybody is tired of despair. Yesterday their Excellencies the Viceroy and Governor were in the City Temple to pray for fine weather. Don't run away with the idea that it is a Christian edifice, or that it is any more sacred than the one in London. It corresponds to the celebrated place of names on Holborn where our friend Mr. Paxton presides. It is the Temple of the Patron Deity of the City, more familiarly called the City God, and is the place of celebration and homage as the "To

POST OFFICE NOTICE

POST OFFICE NOTICE
Unclaimed Correspondence,
June 18, 1890.

[illegible]

wards Correspondence having joined the General Postal Union, not being probable about to do so, it is necessary that the following rules be strictly observed.

1. Letters, Books, Pamphlets, and all other articles, which are not to be registered or warehoused, can be received for Postage if it contains gold, silver, money, jewels, precious articles, or anything that, as a general rule, is liable to Customs duties.

2. The Customs Regulation prohibits the sending of Patterns of dutiable articles, unless the quantity sent be so small as to make the sample of no value.

3. The limits of weight allowed are as follows:-

Books, and Papers to British Office, 5 lbs.; to the Continent, 4 lbs.

Patterns to British Office, 5 lbs. if without intrinsic value; to the Continent, 4 lbs. 8 oz.

Indemnity for the Loss of a Registered Letter.

The following Regulations as to the indemnity to be paid in certain cases on the loss of Registered correspondence have been made by His Excellency the Governor under Ordinance 10 of 1876, Section XII.

The Post Office is not legally responsible for the safe delivery of Registered correspondence, but nonetheless it will be prepared to make good the contents of such correspondence lost while passing through the Post, to the extent of $10, in certain cases divided as follows:

1. That the sender only observed all the conditions of Registration require.
2. That the letter was securely enclosed in a reasonably strong envelope.
3. That application was made to the Postmaster General of Hongkong in-mediately the loss was discovered, the envelope being invariably forwarded with such express as to insure its safe delivery.

4. That the Postmaster General is satisfied that the loss occurred wholly in the post and was in the custody of the British Postal administration in China, that it was not caused by any fault on the part of the sender, by destruction by fire, or shipwreck, nor by the dilatory care or negligence of any person, nor was the employment of the Hongkong Post Office.

5. No compensation can be paid for mere damage to fragile articles such as portraits, watches, handomely bound books, &c., which reach their destination, although in a broken or deteriorated condition.

Money Order Regulations.

1. Money orders are exchanged with the United Kingdom, New South Wales, New Zealand, Oregon, and South Africa, and

and Port Darwin, the Straits Settlements,

Western Australia, and (except at Shanghai) with the Japanese Empire. Hongkong also issues orders on Shanghai, and vice versa.

2.—Small sums may be remitted between the other Ports by means of Postage Stamps, subject to a charge of one per cent. for cashing them.

3.—Many Money Orders are supplied to residents at the smaller Ports in this way.

An application for an order is filled up, and is enclosed with a stamped, directed, and unsealed envelope to the Postmaster at the nearest issuing office. The application must be accompanied with the full amount (including commission) in cash, postage stamps, or otherwise, and a small and a little margin should be left for variations of exchange. The Postmaster issues the order, sends it on in the envelope, and returns the change, if any, by first opportunity, with a receipt for the letter, if it were to be registered, as it always should be. Care should be taken to send these applications to the nearest Money Order Office close some hours before the departure of the mails.

4.—No order must exceed £10, or $50, or include any fraction of a penny; nor will more than two such orders be issued to the same person, in favour of the same payee, by the same mail. Orders will be drawn at the current rate of the day and paid at the rate of the day when the order is received.

The commission is as follows—

Orders on the United Kingdom.
Up to £2	10s. 6d.
£2 to £5	3s. 6d.
£5 to £10	5s. 6d.
£10 to £20	7s. 6d.

Local and International Orders.
Up to £50 or £20	5s. 6d.
£50 or £20	10s. 6d.

5.—Rate of Money Order Offices in the United Kingdom may be consulted at Rough Guide, p. 100.

Notes must be given to 100 (over) when there is more than one Christian
